

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA[®]
GRADUATE PROGRAM
IN GERONTOLOGY

1821 E. Elm Street
Tucson, AZ 85719
PH: 520.626.5804
FAX: 520.626.5801

WELCOME!

We are very pleased that you are interested in pursuing a Gerontology Certificate through the Graduate Program in Gerontology at The University of Arizona. We offer two gerontology certificates: a seven (7) unit disciplinary Foundational Graduate Certificate for those in health professions and a fifteen (15) unit interdisciplinary Graduate Certificate with an emphasis in either Gerontology or Geriatrics. Enclosed in this packet is the information you need to apply to either certificate program.

We have courses offered in the classroom setting or, for your convenience, many of our courses are online. Some courses are offered through a partnership with Arizona State University online and through the Center for Distance Learning at the University of Arizona's Office of Continuing Education and Academic Outreach.

We sincerely hope that you will choose to pursue your Graduate Certificate in Gerontology at The University of Arizona. If you have any questions, or if we may be of assistance in any way as you make your decision, please feel free to contact us directly at 520-626-5804, email: geron@email.arizona.edu or visit our website at www.gerontology.arizona.edu.

Sincerely,

Mindy J. Fain, MD
Director
Graduate Program in Gerontology